HUCKLEBERRY MIDWIVES: When to Call Your Midwives

IN LABOUR
First Babies	Second or More Babies
Contractions are 4-1-1: • 3-4 minutes apart • 1 minute long • 1 hour of that contraction pattern Time contractions from the start of one to the start of the next.	Contractions are 5-1-1: • 5 minutes apart • 1 minute long • 1 hour of that contraction pattern OR anytime you feel things are moving very quickly
Anytime you feel you are not coping and need our support

If your water breaks before labour starts:

- If you are GBS positive or don't know if you have GBS (group B strep) please call the midwife anytime of the day or night to make the best plan for you.
- If you are GBS negative and it is during the day, call the on-call midwife to let them know.
- If you are GBS negative and it is at night, make sure the fluid is clear and your baby is moving. If you are GBS neg, the fluid is clear, and your baby is moving normally you can go back to sleep and call the midwife in the morning.
- If the fluid is green, brown or red, or you have concerns about the baby's movement urgently call the midwife.

Other Important Reasons to Urgently Call
• Large amount of bleeding (more than, mucousy "bloody show") • Your baby is moving less than normal • Temperature of 38° or above	• Significant abdominal pain • Severe headache that won't go away • Sudden changes in vision • Nausea and vomiting (when not in labour)

How to call:

Urgent number 604-336-6468

Your call will go directly to the on-call midwife's cell phone. They will either answer right away or it will go to voicemail. If it goes to voicemail, please leave a message with your name, phone number and the reason you are calling. They will call you back right away if it is urgent. Or they will call you when they are free if it is non-urgent. If you need a call back and you don't hear back within 10-15 minutes, please call again.

If you do not hear back within 15 minutes of your second call, please call the hospital where you are registered:

- BC Women's Hospital at 604-875-3070
- St. Paul's Hospital at 604-682-2344 ext. 62432

To reach a midwife from another team, call 604-558-1701 to get their pager number.

NON-URGENT: Email info@huckleberrymidwives.com

We ask that, as much as possible, you keep non-urgent questions and concerns for your scheduled prenatal visits. If you have a question or concern that cannot wait until your next appointment and is a non-emergency, you may send us an email and we will call you back within 24 hours.
